

Assignment NO #08.

Why I want to become CSP officer.

I Work on articulation. Of your ideas

I would like to become CSP officer because it is a prestigious job in Pakistan. A CSP officer has great influence and respect in society among people of Pakistan. People respect CSP officer for being in high position, strong and powerful position or for being a part of government upper body. Moreover, it offers job security because it is a permanent job. This job offers diverse field to serve in government and to nation. It offers more facilities like, government sponsors travel, food, Hospital and other expenditure for CSP officers. It offers free grad schooling abroad. It offers to make network with elite and senior officers. A CSP officer can resign any time even after the training which are rare cases.

As Spiderman would say "Great Power Comes great responsibilities" above all the facilities it is most responsible job to do.
