Most people believe the law of a country and individual's freedom oppose each other. Apparently it does not seem wrong. Every law imposes some restrictions on citizens. If a country has large number of laws, then there will be more restrictions. Due to many restrictions, an individual freedom becomes limited. ~~(If the country does not have too)~~ In contrast, if a country has low number of law the individual will enjoy more freedom.

Avoid cutting. Punctuation needs improvement

Pakistan wants peace in Afghanistan because Afghanistan's peace is very important for Pakistan. If we see in historical context, Pakistan and Afghanistan are neighbors, Islamic brother countries connected to each other on the basis of history, culture and language. This relationship is inseparable, both countries are dependant on each other and can not live alone. Pakistan's point of view on Afghanistan has been the same since the very first day, that Afghanistan issue should be solved ~~(through)~~ politically. China also agrees with Pakistan's stance. China has said on this matter, that the issue of Afghanistan and peace in Afghanistan's leadership can be solved through negotiations. For strategic partnership, Pakistan and China will play their role in solving the issue of Afghanistan through negotiations.
