

Neo-colonialism

In the post-colonial world, ~~it was the assumption among developing countries that the era of foreign domination has concluded. The developing world would be free from foreign influence.~~

In today's world, after the emergence of global agencies, ~~it seems that~~ ^{it is obvious that}

~~the influence of powerful states on developing countries is not concluded. The powerful states still can influence the developing country through the global agencies such as IMF, UN and WTO.~~

~~plz avoid this expression as this does not convey any meanings~~

In this new form of colonialism, they ~~(don't)~~ ^{they use economic tools to control} don't control the governance through force but they control it through economic dependency.

Pakistan's agreements with IMF ^{IMF is quite pertinent example} is a good example of foreign influence in country. IMF dictate Pakistan's government to introduce reforms, cut of subsidies and many more things, but Pakistan do ~~all~~ this just to get ~~loan~~ from IMF. The government has been ignoring the interest of public because the fulfilment of these conditions result in inflation.

When a state sign agreement with global agency that they obey their conditions, a state compromise on its sovereignty.

plz write meaningful sentences

Different global agencies are working for various countries interest. United Nations which perceives a neutral organization but it also works for the interest of powerful states.

plz rectify your sentence structure

The solution to get away from this foreign influence is to make regional cooperation and to make good relations with immediate neighbour countries.

By starting economic relation in region and with neighbourhood will help to strengthen Pakistan's economy, which will decrease ~~the~~ Pakistan's reliance on global agencies.