Climate of Tropic and Temperate regions

The climate of Tropic and Temperate regions are different. The tropic regions are moderate in terms of climate because they are near to the equator. Their needs of survival are far less than those of temperate region. Humans. They need less shelter, food and nourishing nutrients. While, the temperate region is the one in which human have to do more struggle for their survival. In order to protect themselves in intense cold they need warm clothes, fuels for fire and more nourishing food. However, cold weather brings a ~~kind of~~ energy to humans as compared to the hot weather. This is same like the seasons on earth.

Ans<sup>1</sup>: Instead of making machines our servants, the author says ~~that~~ <sup>machines</sup> have become our masters because the ~~machines~~ <sup>machines</sup> work only when they get fuel, charging, and coal. They need their proper maintenance and time. Otherwise, they would not work. Therefore, machines became master rather than slaves. but Ans<sup>2</sup>: The use of machines has brought us more leisure and more ~~energy~~. According to the author, this has been a curse rather than a blessing because in free time and having more ~~energy~~ human beings ~~try to make~~ more machines rather than ~~focusing~~ on ~~disasters~~, Universe, or quarrels between nations.

Ans<sup>3</sup>: Yes, I agree with author's views. According to the author civilisation is the process of becoming a civilized person of the nation. However, the time and energy to be a civilized agent is spending in not an exact direction. Human beings are just working on building up of machines rather than work on diplomacy and to resolve disputes between nations.

expression

Making more beautiful things "his expression means that to work on innovations, discoveries, and to resolve disputes as per the author in the passage. The beautiful things that I would like to make are to resolve the disputes between Palestine and Israel by using social media platform to aware public that boycott all the Israeli goods and raise awareness so that muslim ummah shall unite and work in favour of them.

there is no sense of this answer give a practical opinion and sentence is not supposed to be this lengthy Ans<sup>5</sup>: The plans which I do have to eradicate poverty in the world is equal distribution of resources between the rich and the poor. In this way, wealth is not accumulated in <sup>specific</sup> ~~the~~ class of society. The difference between rich and poor class is eradicated and this is how poverty is controlled.

My most particular attention would be reserved by the poor class because this class of society is the one who is mostly illiterate, they do not know their basic rights. Therefore, this class shall need immediate assistance and look after.
