Simla Agreement and its Suspension:

Pakistan and India entered into an agreement in 6 months of 1971 was at Simla called as Simla agreement. Zulfikar Ali Bhutto and Indira Gandhi agreed to maintain peaceful relations. The Simla agreement compel both countries to maintain peace, respect each others integrity, non-interference.

It also ensures to solving all the disputes bilaterally including Kashmir issue.

Despite this agreement Pakistan and India entered into a multiple conflicts that includes Kargil War, Siachen glacier dispute, Pulwama attack. It can be argued that it failed to maintain peace but it can be argued that it is to prevent few conflicts.

Pakistan - 1965 the suspension of Indus water treaty - has threaten to suspend the Simla agreement.
This suspension is serious concern for India as it will affect the international involvement on Kashmir issue. In addition to this, it will be good for Pakistan to take the Kashmir issue to the United Nations - which already suggested peacebide in Kashmir which is against the interest of India. However, I believe there will be no direct escalation of threat of war on its suspension.
