

Pakistani Women have equal Rights/Chances as men

Thesis Statement

Pakistani women do not have equal chances as men in various fields. However, in future it seems to have improvement in this case

Outline

1. Introduction

2. Areas of un-equality

2.1. Educational Divide

a) There is a literacy gap between the male and female of 72% to 53% respectively.

2.2. Economic Disparities

a) Labor force participation of women is 22% and men 67% that clearly indicates the un-equality.

2.3 Harassment at Workplaces

a) Women does not enjoy an healthy and safe work environment in offices.

2.4. Digital Divide

a) Limited internet access to women is 33% vs 52% of men, reduces the women's chances in e-commerce, freelancing and online education.

2.5 Cultural and Patriarchal Norms

a) Women faces the issues of early forced marriages, honor crimes, and mobility restrictions.

2.6 Domestic Violence:-

a) Women facing domestic violence by In-Laws especially from Husband.

3. Positive aspects for Improvements in future

3.1- Social Media Awareness Campaigns

- a) Social media activism and awareness campaigns highlighted the issue as a mainstream topic.
- b) Support of youth for women empowerment and education is also a way of hope for improvement in future.

3.2 - Governmental Policies

- a) Gender equality vision 2030 under Pakistan's SDG's include the participation of women in all sectors.
- b) Digital Pakistan initiative encourages women's freelancing and IT participation.

3.3. Rising Educational Achievements

- a) women are entering science, technology, medicine and engineering fields to ensure long-term professional dominance.

4. Conclusion