Title: Trip to Cherokee

My last vacation, I wanted to visit somewhere exciting and exotic but my friend suggested Cherokee. First we visited Qualla boundary (a brief image of Cherokee) a town, which was surrounded by mountain scenery like Indian village (producing tribal crafts and lifestyle of 18 century). Despite language barrier we find souvenir shops — filled with rubber tomahawks, traditional war bonnets and Tepees (cone-shaped tents made from animal skin). In shop, George — middle aged man with fluent English welcome us and then invited for lunch. George said that, he is a woodcutter, but he earn more in tour season, especially in Bingo weekend. Moreover, on Friday afternoon Bingo hall opened, attracting huge crowd to various games (special Jackpot and warrior game special). After that, our final stop
