- 2.1.2) Teacher Centered, not student oriented.
- 2.1.3) Lacking Analytical skills.
- 2.1.4) No single curriculum.

Firstly, the main ill in higher education is outdated syllabus. It is evident from Shakespeare and Classical poet that have nothing to do with modern world. In addition to this, the law syllabus of the universities are outdated. The reason behind this is that, the lack of government interest. Moreover, ~~the~~ Pakistan's higher education is teacher centered rather than student oriented because there is only teacher in faculty of any particular subject who teaches, makes paper, and also checks as well. Due to which most of the time teachers in higher education harassed the students. Additionally, Pakistan's higher education is based on the concept of rote learning instead of analytical based learning. The main reason behind this is that, teachers read slides in their lectures because they want to complete syllabus rather than focusing on analytical skills based learning. Moreover, there is no single curriculum in Pakistan's
