

Water crisis and

Outline: National unity

Introduction:

Thesis statement:

"Water crisis is a prominent issue in Pakistan. If not dealt with timely, it can be a threat to national unity. As water crisis leads to unequal distribution of water among provinces."

- > Water crisis can lead to political polarization among parties. As party from different province would lead the cause of their provinces.
KPK and Punjab disagreement over Kalabagh dam.
- > water crisis would lead to decline of industries.
- > Adverse impacts on Health of people.
- > AI is also an emerging contributor to water crisis. Data centres require immense water for cooling.
- > Water shortage would lead to agriculture decline
- > It can lead to legal battles among provinces