

(2025)

Translation

Al-Ghazali's, a 12th Century Muslim theologian and philosopher thoughts were highly misunderstood. As a thinker he argued that Quran is open to as many translation as there are droplets in an ocean. According to him, "Do you not know that Quran is like an ocean?" and one has right to embark an infinite journey through it. By diving into depth of ~~ocean~~ one can discover rubies and pearls and emerged enriched. He further ~~was~~ asked: why do you remain still at shore satisfied? and for muslim it is allowed to reject, progress and disagreements. Al-Ghazali's philosophy is a beautiful blend tradition & innovation.

(2024)

when a self-created conflict of Palestine presented to United Nations, the world Body recognized the rights of Palestinian people to self-determination and also proposed a framework to resolve the conflict. The two state ^{solution} ~~resolution~~ was proposed but the approved resolutions by United Nations have not been implemented in past seven decades. On the other hand, on the behalf of America, Israel forces are still playing Holi with the blood of innocent and unarmed Palestinians to this day, and from the previous two and a half month the area of Gaza has been completely destroyed due to this continuous war. In this war, the Israel forces, with the assistance of America, has killed more than twenty thousand Palestinians including women, childrens ~~which were~~ and left no safe place for those who left alive, and they are now also losing their lives due to shortage of food and medicine.