

Title "Growing relations between Pakistan and Bangladesh"

During Hasina Wajid's rule the ~~att~~ attitude towards Pakistan was hostile and warmed ties toward India, after the ouster of Hasina's government the relations between Pakistan and Bangladesh are flourishing. Recently Foreign Minister of Pakistan has visited Bangladesh after 13 years. He signed six MOUs to bolster relation in various sectors. Both parties ~~also~~ have talked about the revival of SAARC. It may be a well step toward regional connectivity but India may be put barriers in this revival. However, there are trilateral cooperation mechanism between Pakistan, Bangladesh and China. This forum can further explore to deepen ties between three state and other region countries who wish to work together for progress can be invited to join. Moreover, on the tragedy of 1971, Bangladesh insists on an apology on 1971 tragedy. On the other hand Islamabad feels that the issue has been settled w recognition of Bangladesh, as well as Musharraf, expressing of regret during his visit 2002.
