

Water Crisis in Pakistan; Causes, Implications, and Solutions

Outline

1. Introduction

— "The future wars will be fought over water."

Thesis Statement: Pakistan, a nation engaged in agriculture, is facing ^{water} crisis owing to numerous factors. However, its implication can be tamed with right strategies.

2. National Water Policy 2018; A critical Assessment.

3. What are the causes of water crisis in Pakistan?

- Climate change is hitting hard.
- Dearth of effective regulation to monitor underground water.
- Intra-provincial water disputes
- Over pumping of groundwaters in certain areas has depleted

the aquifers -

4. Implications of Water Crisis on Pakistan:

- Declining Water Quality
- Water logging - the land is saline
- Political economy of water as 70% seventy percentage (70%) of Population depending on agriculture.
- Conflict with India over water distribution

5. Solution to Water crisis in Pakistan:

- Managing regional water Politics through diplomacy with India.
- Long term comprehensive policy
- Building Water Reservoirs

6. Case Studies; learn from the best practice;

- Israel's drip-water irrigation
- Israel have twenty percentage (20%) more water than needed.

7. Conclusion