

Community and Governance:

If there are no cameras in the street and no law-enforcing officers present there then there is chance of robbery must happen. A person who see the some amount like 5,000 is in the car the most probably the person breaks the window of car to get this amount of money. Meanwhile, the another person who donot break the window because the too small amount of money but if the amount is 50,000, so, there is chance to broke the window. The duties of the government to made the strict punishment to the criminal. The government made the strict laws against the criminal, so they donot this criminal act in future. The ^{Govt} make the stronger economy because the criminal donot involve in the crime due to monetary reasons. The parental guidance helps the child donot involve in the criminal act. The people of Pakistan must follow the ethical standard of the country like Japan to reduce the crime rate.