

Essay:- Instruction in youth is like engraving in stones

Thesis Statement:- Instruction in youth reflects the character, behaviour, and habits of a person. It is learned from family environment. Sometimes, youth face various social and economic challenges. However, certain measures are required to address the challenges.

Outline:-

I. Introduction

II. Instruction in youth is like engraving in stones:

- A. Early education builds a character and behaviour.
- B. Family training enables youth to live in society.
- C. It develops patience in youth.
- D. Children learn from families to respect elders.
- E. Early guideline develops a habit of sharing with others.
- F. Family imparts cultural values and social norms in childhood.
- G. Early education instills lifelong discipline in youth.

III. Some Challenges faced by youth in early education:

- A. Peer pressure negatively affects the youth.
- B. Lack of awareness programs.
- C. Cultural restrictions can hinder children's social development.
- D. Child labor destroys the children's skills.

IV Some suggested measures to address the challenges:

- A. Promote awareness programs in youth
- B. Protect youth from negative societal pressure.
- C. Enhance the role of ed teachers in educational institutes
- D. Develop rationality and critical thinking in youth.

V Conclusion