

Precis

CSS-2010

TitleThe Cure of Envy

Envy is one the most unfortunate characteristics of human nature. As by inflicting harm to other persons, envious also lives in state of unhappiness. He prevent others from getting advantages, desirable for him. If this passion lives on, it eat other desirable characteristics as there is no justification available. However, along with envy, passion of admiration do exist in humans. enhancing this passion leads towards happiness by curbing envy. Happiness is the most desirable remedy for envy but it is restrained by envy feeling. But finding more logical

Day: _____
Date: ____/____/20____

answer seems completed, so it is better to divert to the code to cease envoy. behavior by taking long steps.

Comprehension

Question:

Why does the doctrine of power set by neo-imperial America deny space to counselling?

Ans:

The doctrine of power set by neo-imperial American deny space to counselling. As America determined to secure her national interest and bolstered security by using arms as more legitimate means. So America set new doctrine of Pre-emptive strike when her national interests were seems to be at risk.

Question

What is the essence of moral equilibrium? whereas war has no moral justification?

Answer

After America's declaration of against Iraq, her allies split and protested strongly. USA's journalist use rhetoric that America's decision to wage war based on security, primarily the security of her public and that was moral justification for USA to embark on pre-emptive war. So, USA use moral equivalence for her actions.

Question:

Why do countries occupied and under hyphopower have no peace?

Answer:

Countries occupied by hyphopower can never experience peace; As dominant state always suppressed them through her brutal rule. As it tries to maintain peace by imposing her own system of government and laws it creates strong feeling of nationalism and self determination. All this leads to riots, strikes and mass protest. For instance USA military invasion in Afghanistan and Fall of Roman empire by Napoleon.

Question:

Arguably Europe and Hyperpowers US are at cross purpose over the concept of war. Are they? why?

Answer

After declaring WOT Europe and US was at cross purpose over war. Subsequently, America maintains her position to wage war alone and not to be counselled by allies. While European ^{powers} want to distant from wars in other countries.

They intend to refrain NATO and military resources being used in war that is not ^{there} in national and security interest. As result it split America and U.N allies
when USA initiated war in Iraq and Afghanistan.

Question

What Tony Blair's meant
by 'wise counsel' - did it prevail?

Answer

American former Prime Minister Tony Blair consistently urged to offer and wise counsel to USA as the most viable option in face of her hyperpower posture.
Nonetheless, USA refused to accept this counsel, when it took decision to wage war after 9/11. US set new rhetoric of legitimizing wars as security concern, so war prevail over.