

Introductory Paragraphs For Essay Writing

(i)

Good Governance & The Role of Institution in Pakistan:

The two hemispheres of the brain are like two sides of coins, ~~at~~ different in function, but inseparable in the creation of thought and perception.

As all the four hemispheres connected with each other for clear perception and better thinking, it is very crucial for all the institutions work well for a good governance. There are multiple institutions as political, educational, healthcare, social, media and religious institution, that can play role in the development of good governance in Pakistan.

Integrate your attention grabber within the intro para

The length of intro is too short

Follow proper structure do

Introduction

Avoid grammatical mistake

(ii) Education System of Pakistan: Challenges and Reform.

"Education is the Most Powerful weapon which you can use to change the World."

(Nelson Mandela)

For a country to make development and progress, it is very important to promote education. As per Pakistan Economic survey 2024-25, Pakistan literacy rate is 60.6%, which need to be enhanced. Pakistan is facing challenges of poverty, political instabilities, Inequitable access, brain drain and teacher absenteeism and poor quality of education. A number of reforms need to be brought in order to improve the educational system.