Nisar Hasan's Documentaries on Palestine

Nisar Hasan was born and raised in Mashhad. He started working in cinema after graduation. He displayed Independence in which he was amazed at the Zionists' concept of independence. When the world's attention was on Israel's plan to capture more ^{Palestinian} Palestine land, he informed the author about his latest film. The author called it a ^{one's} blessing. One should choose his enemies wisely for at the end he ^{one} would become like that. Same is the case in Israel-Palestine issue. Palestinians and different works notions have saved the author from this trap and reminded him reality of the politics.

Nisar Hasan's new documentary was a masterpiece in this regard. It was ^{broadcast} broadcasted by Al Jazeera in three parts but one should watch it a go.
