The Essay

Addressing the United Nations Security Council in 2024, the UN Palestinian Ambassador, Riyad Mansour, said, 'What is happening in Gaza is going down as the most documented genocide in history'. This perfectly encapsulates the situation in Palestine today as we see first hand the atrocities unfolding there because of the role of media. Regardless of which side makes claims about the other, the ability to witness from just one's phone what is truly going on there is a revolution in any phenomenon. Such coverage of events was not possible even a decade ago and advancements in Media technology ~~are~~ ^{are} the foremost reason for it today. The ~~role~~ ^{role} of Media in the Palestine Israel Conflict is two fold, serving as both positive and negative. On one hand, it is increasing awareness of the Palestinian cause, giving them a voice, strengthening the Muslim Ummah, and urging Global Action, but on the other hand, it gives rise to propaganda, the bias of Western Media, contributes to desensitization, and an overall feeling of helplessness about the whole situation.
