⇒ Online learning is not only convenient but often more effective than traditional classroom instruction.

Introduction:-

Jamal, living in the slums of Karachi, is deprived of better education facilities in nearby areas. He ^{owns} ~~has~~ an iPad and a ~~digital mobile~~ ^{smartphone} with good internet services. Wouldn't it be better if there is an online learning system so that he could have access to higher education.

The same scenario is faced in many regions in the world which indicates that the importance of online learning systems. ~~Only learning methods~~

~~do not involve~~ Online learning does not require complex infrastructure and transport facilities, thus eliminating the financial constraints in the ways of literacy. Also, Online learning methodology can bridge urban-rural gaps and gender educational disparities. Similarly, it can ensure a better teaching environment ~~provision~~ and enhanced coordination among teachers and students. Also, students get engaged in multiple softwares that increase their technical abilities and develop critical skills by consulting multiple ~~many~~ resources. To add to it, students learn beyond space and time which improves their learning and is more convenient than fixed time classrooms. Hence, by eradicating financial constraints, ending rural-urban divide, and providing a comfortable learning environment, it instigates the stance that online learning is not only convenient but also more effective than traditional classroom instructions.

{ India-US lobby and BRICS }

A recent tweet by Trump highlights a dual response for Russia and India, threatening ~~warning~~ India with high tariffs because of its oil trade with Russia. Since Russia-Ukraine war in 2022, US has put sanctions on Russia and has ended all trade agreements with it. But a recent India-Russia oil deal has put a blow on US president Trump's ego. He clearly reiterated in his tweet for Indian to rely on US. Also, by increasing bilateral relations with Pakistan, US has seemed to rub salt on lacerating wounds of Indians.

In November 2020, New government in India took control thus ^{resulted in} changing priorities and policies. Not becoming the part of China backed Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership (RCEP) was the biggest blunder in 2020. Indian analysts claimed that it would have resulted in increased competition and and domestic industry backwardness, but in reality, it was the chance for surplus economic growth, global market access and increase regional supply chain for Indians.

If the ill advised decision of Modi to not to join RCEP was a ~~pro~~ policy of protectionism then what role India is playing in BRICS, a multinational organization of biggest economies.

It shows the influence of American lobby in India and the role that it plays in decision making. Indian elites who want to remain loyal to ~~India~~ America to maintain the status quo, play a major role in country's policy making.

In addition to this, Trump threatened Russia with deployment of two nuclear submarines in Russian maritime areas but instead of, in spite of Indian silence behaviour, Russia has retaliated. It has responded properly reminding the US about "Dead Hand".

Population Explosion

Population explosion has become a national threat, leading to various problems emergence in the society. Pakistan is 5th most populous country in world ranking. According to economic survey of 2023, the population of Pakistan is expected to rise ~~to~~ ^{by} about 350 million till 2050. This posed an entential threat to the state resources and future generations. Both federal and provincial governments are silenced so far about this matter.

Currently, population of Pakistan is above 250 million. The major factor contributing to this increasing population is increased fertility rate of women in Pakistan which is about 3.3 child per woman.

Also, the death rate is low than birth rate which shows accelerating growth in population. A recent statics shows that 4 million children are being ^{added} in society daily.

Another major factor contributing to this increasing population level is illiteracy of the people. Mostly, people living in poor regions are not educated and are unaware of importance of family planning. Poverty leads to low living standards which ~~makes them~~ results in requirement of more earning heads. Hence, then children starts working at young age. Despite Article 25A of constitution of Pakistan that made it necessary, ~~for~~ the compulsory education for 5 to 16 years, Child labor is increasing rapidly in Pakistan. Most Major reason is of it the same as concept of huge families in Pakistan but unaware of importance of education.

[Indo-Israel Nexus.]

Expanding relations between BJP, which is a political wing of hindutva and Israel, a Zionist state are creating an alarming situation for Pakistan particularly in defence perspective. A meeting had taken place ^{between} among Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu and Indian Ambassadors in his state that discussed the defence cooperations ^{among} ~~between~~ two states. Netanyahu praised the role of Israeli weapons being used in recent armed conflict of India and Pakistan. Apparently, it seemed a trade weapon deal but it is hardly a secret that how both countries are exploiting human rights ~~and~~ in Kashmir and Palestine with decades of genocide. India can make weapon deals with whomever it wants and Israel is also independent to export weapons to any state but it is also a fact that leadership in both countries follows the same ideology.

which is of eviction of Muslim majorities as it is being happening in Indian Occupied Kashmir and Palestine with ugly label of terrorism. Some analysts have also said that Israel's "model" should be implicated in Kashmir. It ^{represents} ~~shows~~ BJP's Indian notion shows complete ^{renunciation} ~~solidarity~~ with Gandhi's and Nehru's concept of India. Furthermore, this expanding nexus of India-Israel calls up a warning situation for Pakistan. Pakistan should be wary of this growing nexus and defensive measures should be taken beforehand.

⇒ Peace deals may offer temporary relief but eventually collapse

Since last 2 decades, many counter terrorism operations have been launched in tribal areas in Pakistan.

This has aroused public fear regarding military activities in ex-FATA regions as it had resulted in several civilian casualties.

For a past few days, three major ^{have been} ~~are~~ girgas ~~are~~ hosted by KP govt to discuss the insurgent activities of militant groups. People have demanded negotiations with taliban government and other banned groups in tribal regions. But even if a pact is been signed ~~between~~ with these groups, is there any guarrranty that it would not be violated.

Also, these banned militant groups called "India backed Fitna Al Khawaraj" by military, would renounced insurgent activities and their objectives.

From the past experience, it has been concluded that they had violated already signed treaties always. That's way Peace deals may offer temporary relief but eventually collapse. A proper solution needed to be found to counter these insurrection.
