Essay: Unemployment in Pakistan

Introduction:

Pakistan, a land rich with potentials but burdened by inequity, the silent suffering of jobless hand speaks louder than any protest. Growing unemployment is neither a new issue nor it is a fully settled one. Developed nations are dealing with it successfully, whereas the developing nations are still struggling with it. Unfortunately, Pakistan is one of them. Unemployment in Pakistan is not only a statistic results, but it is deep-seated socio-economic condition that weakens the national progress.

Unemployment in Pakistan stems from educational mismatches, economic instability and poor governance.

This particular issues must be addressed for sustainable development.
