

Essay:- Instruction in youth is like engraving stones

Thesis Statement:- Instruction in youth refines character, behaviour, and habits of a person. It is learned from family environment. Sometimes, youth face various social and economic challenges. However, certain measures are required to address the challenges.

Outline:-

I. Introduction

II. Instruction in youth is like engraving in stones:

- A. Early education builds a character and behaviour.
- B. Family training enables youth to live in society.
- C. It develops patience in youth.
- D. Children learns from families to respect elders.
- E. Early guideline develops a habit of sharing with others.

Well organised meaningful and formation of phrases is fine good cultural values and social norms in childhood.

G. Early education instills lifelong discipline in youth.

III. Some challenges faced by youth early education:

- A. Peer pressure negatively affects the youth.
- B. Lack of awareness programs.
- C. Cultural restrictions can hinder children's social development.
- D. Child labor destroys the children's skills.

IV. Some Suggested

- A. Promote Awareness programs in youth
- B. Protect youth from negative societal pressure.
- C. Enhance the role of ed. teachers in educational institutions
- D. Develop rationality and critical thinking in youth.

How instructions can be more positive

V. Conclusion