1 The world. All the people accept, is in danger. But no one ever think that it is laziness that fetched the world into such a pass. There is not deficiency of any blessing but it is just laziness. Although, still the world is capable of anything but it needs sound thought. There is sufficient energy in the world but it is misdirected. All the time, a person must be busy in any activity. There should not be wastage of time. Although, there are some people who are busy all the time but they do not know what to do and when to do. Even in today world if 50% of European politician realize the idea that sluggishness is a crime, and go away; it will be very fruitful. Every now and then certain religious sects kept conferences but they waste time on condemning the length of women clothes and the noisiness of their dance band.
