

Delayed Marriages: Cause and Consequences.

Brainstorming.

Causes

- Personal Factors.
- Financial Factor
- Family Factors.
- Socio-Cultural Factors.
- Demographic Factors.

Consequences

- Individual impact
- Economic Consequences.
- Biological consequences.
- Socio-Cultural conse.
- Life style and compatibility.

Outline.

1. Introduction.

- 1.1 Attention Grabber
- 1.2 General Statement
- 1.3 Thesis Statement.

2. Causes of Delayed Marriages.

2.1 Personal Factors at play in delaying Marriages

2.1.1 Materialistic Standards: "Right Partner"

2.1.2 Level of education

2.1.3 Higher Expectations

2.1.4 Hypocrisy of moral uprightness.

2.1.5 online dating and choice Overload.

2.2 Financial Factors

2.2.1 Inflation all over the world.

2.2.2 Career building

2.2.3 Preference for rich-settled Matches

2.2.4 wedding as financial project.

2.3 Socio-cultural Factors.

2.3.1 Urbanization and Modern lifestyle

2.3.2 Global exposure.

2.3.3 Standards of beauty

2.3.4 Social pressure of prestigious position

2.4 Familial factor's role in delaying Marriage

- 2.4.1 Relationship of Parents or family members.
- 2.4.2 Caste and class differences.
- 2.4.3 Higher expectation of Parents

2.5 Women Empowerment and Gender roles.

- 2.5.1 Women putting off marriage.
- 2.5.2 Change in global norms.
- 2.5.3 likelihood of workforce equality.
- 2.5.4 Rejection of traditional roles.

3. Consequences of Delayed Marriages.

3.1 Individual Impacts.

- 3.1.1 Personal growth and freedom
- 3.1.2 Maturity and Financial Independence
- 3.1.3 Mental health: Frustration, Loneliness
- 3.1.4 Relationship Baggage.

3.2 Biological Consequences.

- 3.2.1 Fertility issue; Men and women both.
- 3.2.2 Pregnancy issues; difficult pregnancy
- 3.2.3 Decline in birth rate.
- 3.2.4 Abnormality in children.

3.3. Economic Consequences.

- 3.3.1 Stability before marriage.
- 3.3.2 Possibility of dual income.
- 3.3.3 Career building & prioritization.
- 3.3.4 Delay in financial pooling.
- 3.3.5 Curse of overindependency

3.4 Socio-cultural Consequences.

3.4.1 Stigmatization

3.4.2 parental and societal pressure.

3.4.3 Reduced option in marriage pool.

3.4.4 Generational gap among parent
- child.

4. Conclusion

The Essay.

Self reliance is the only road to true freedom. In shifting dynamics of 21st century, delaying marriage for independence and freedom is the new normal. Age of marriage for both men and women has increased globally in almost every region of the world.

The decline in marriage rate has been marked globally for decades. Many factors such as materialistic standards, career focus, among economic factors has played significant role. While delaying marriage has individual and biological consequences. It also poses significant consequences of economic and socio-cultural factors. The independency and freedom that may comes with delaying marriage may result in frustration, loneliness and depression.

Your outline is fine but focus on structure of your essay

Make a strong attention grabber

Write summary of your outline in your introduction

Write thesis statement atleast in your introduction

