

Topic:

True peace is not merely the absence of tension; it is the presence of justice

Brainstorm

Outline

1. Introduction

- Attention Grabber!
- General Statement

• Thesis Statement: ~~However~~, all of these issues demands the presence of justice. It is not possible to solve them without justice.

2. Issues which demands the presence of justice

Re-write your thesis statement

2.1 How peace is established through justice..

2.2 Give your arguments related to this point

2.3 Your are not getting what the topic of the essay is actually about

2.4 Properly understand the topic

2.5 Martial Brutal Rape

- Shanti, died due to brutal rape by her husband

2.6 Minorities Right

- Recently or in pervious years, ^{in Pakistan} Muslim attacks on ^{some} Chirstians.

2.7 Extremis t activites

- APS school or bobn expren

2.8 Rape and killing of women

- Recently, in Pakistan teenage girl was raped and killed by her cousin because her parents reject his purposal.

2.9 Corruption activites

- tax exeemptions, money laundring

2.10 Criminal activites

- theft, robbery, killing of innocent people.

3. Solution of these issues

3.1 Women empowerment

- teach and educate them about their rights and makes them independent

- 3.2 Strict punishment and rules
- against criminals, rapist
- 3.3 Conference of whole countries and organization
- to solve the issues of Palestine and Kashmir
- 3.4 Justice is served as soon as possible
- Justice delayed is justice denied
- 3.5 Cooperation between all organizations
- FBR, Police, and other agencies too

4. Conclusion

Essay

~~The world is suffering~~

Essay

Justice is the key of peace. Justice plays a significant role in any country, society and organization to bring a peace. It does not mean that justice will eradicate the issues but, it means that it can bring the solution of all that issues. In today's world, most of the countries like Palestine, region like Kashmir and individuals or gender especially women are suffering and restless due to lack of justice. Unjustice situation brings the chaos, destruction and genocides. Most of societies, individuals, countries and organizations are facing issues due to injustice. Some of these issues include Palestine issue, Kashmir Issue, extremist activities, corruption activities and criminal activities. It also include minorities right and some women related issues such as women discrimination, honor killing, marital brutal rape, and rape and killing of women. There is a dire need to resolve this issues to bring prosperity and peace in a country or overall world. Some of the solution to solve these problems are women empowerment, strict punishments and rules, conference of whole countries and organizations, justice is served as soon as possible and cooperation between all organizations, these solution can helpful to bring justice in society. However, all of these issues demands the presence of justice. It is not possible to solve them without justice. (214)