~~Drawbacks of Envy~~

Envy: Drawbacks and Cures.

An envious person is not only sad from being jealous but he also wishes to harm the person he is jealous from and get away with it without punishment. Instead of being thankful for whatever he has, he self-inflicts pain from seeing what others have. A jealous person takes away the bounties of others and he feels that he ~~scared~~ is securing those advantages himself. This ~~much~~ uncontrolled jealousy destroys excellence and wastes great skill. Admiration, on the other hand, ~~increases~~ increases happiness and takes away envy. Selflessness cures envy and jealousy blocks happiness. Knowing why you're envious helps you overcome it. ~~TOO LONG~~
