QNO: 2 Discuss in detail the advent of British impact in USA?

Introduction: "America is the nation of nations" - Obama. The advent of Britishers in the USA was due to several reasons such as: finding of new trade route, Advancement in Technology, collision of King and Pope, Religious Persecution, Political Persecution, Poor Agriculture of Europe, Imperialism, Rising population of Europe, already existed tribes in the US, Ambitious explorers for new discoveries, and for private ownership which was denied for protestants in the Europe.

The Impact of British in the advent of USA:

There are different impacts of Britishers on the advent of USA; few are:

- (i) Finding of new trade route by Christopher Columbus sponsored by King Ferdinand:

King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella of Spain had sponsored Christopher Columbus for the finding of new trade route.

1493
1498
1502

Four voyages by Christopher Columbus

but did not name the new land

Later, Amerigo Vespucci name the "new world", "strange world"

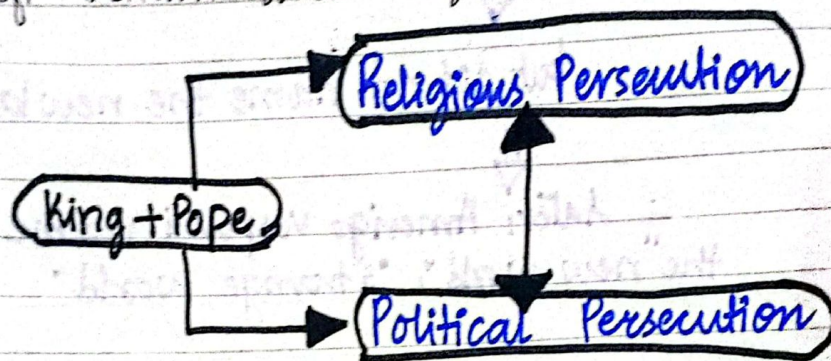

A new land was discovered by the name of America. Later, different colonizations were settled in the land of America and colonized different parts of America.

(ii) Advancement in Technology: Press Revolution by Johannes Gutenberg in 1440:

In 1440, Johannes Gutenberg had started ~~making~~ efforts for press revolution. Because at that time books were only the authority of Queen, Kings and popes. Common peoples have not any access of Books. Therefore, John Gutenberg started press revolution.

(iii) Collision of King and Pope in the Ownership of King's authority:

King and pope both were divesting human beings that King is the divine authority. This has escalated religious persecution and political persecution. Therefore many of the individuals left Britain and migrated to the new land.

(iv) Religious Persecution:

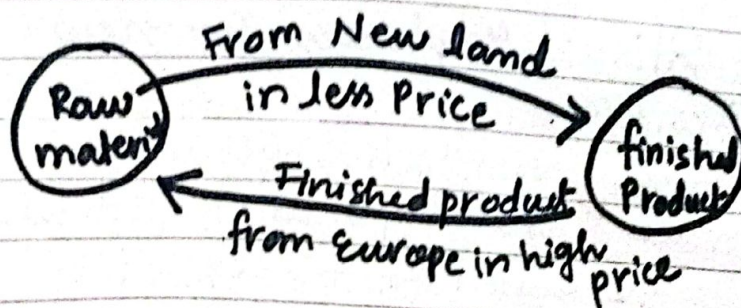

Peoples in the Britain were protestants and King was the catholic. Therefore, whenever any individual said that they were protestants they were beaten; so owing to religious persecution many of them migrated to new land.

(v) Political Persecution:

Protestants political rights were not fulfilled in the Britain. They were denied of their basic political rights because of they are protestants. Therefore, they migrated to new land.

(vi) Poor agriculture of Europe; dependent on new land for raw material:

The Agricultural system of Europe was also poor. Therefore, Europe was highly dependent on the new land for raw material. But when they make the finished product from the raw material its price became high.

(vii) Increase population of Europe around 100 million:

The population of Europe was increasing day by day it reached around hundred million. It was also one of the specific reason that Europeans migrated to the new land.

(viii) Imperialism: Empires want to expand their territories; therefore many empires has expanded their territories towards the new land.

(ix) already existed tribes in the New land:

There were four tribes that already existed on the land of strange world.

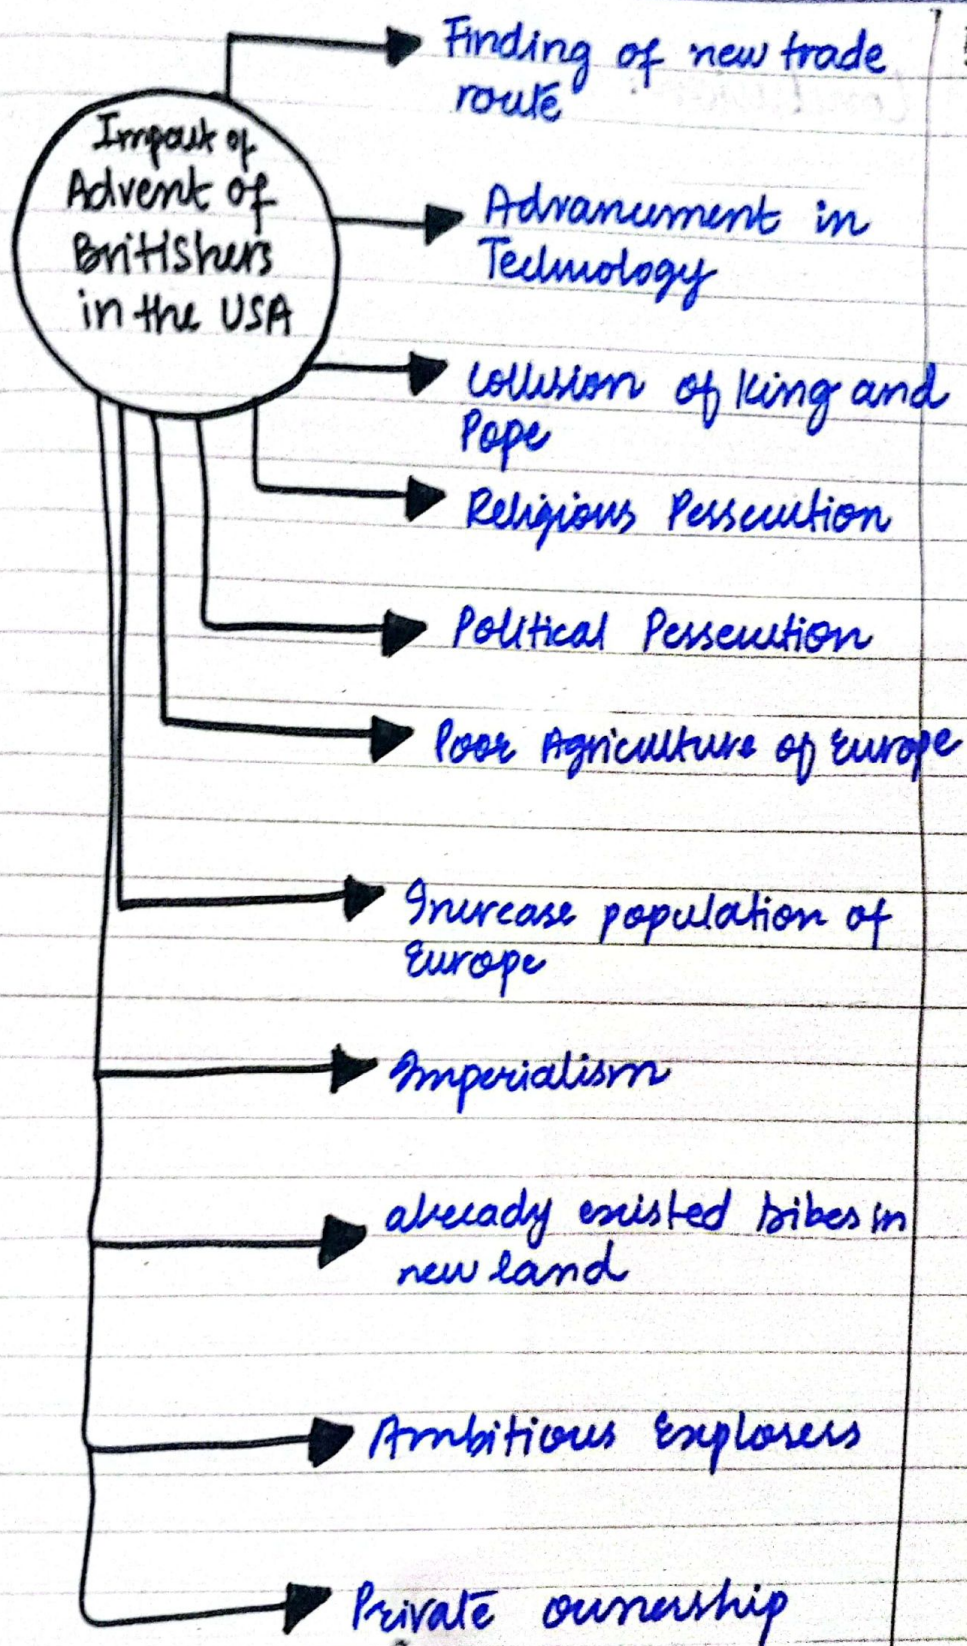

(x) Ambitious explorers for new discoveries:

There were many Ambitious explorers for new discoveries and explorations - This was also one of the reason for the advent of Britishers in the new land.

(xi) For private ownership which was denied in the Europe for protestants:

In Europe, protestants were denied for having private ownership. Therefore, they migrated to the new land for having their private ownership in the newland. Because, in England they were not having this right of private ownership.

Conclusion: The advent of Britishers in the new land was due to several reasons; to find the new trade route, collision of pope and king in the Britain, Religious and political Persecution, poor agriculture of Europe, Imperialism, rising population of Europe and new explorations and discoveries.
