Climate Migration A

new global Challenge.

1.0) Introduction

2.0) Climate migration has become a global challenge:

2.1) Inducing identity crisis by uprooting people from their ancestral homelands.

2.2) Providing easy targets for terrorist and militant organizations.

2.3) Enhancing conflicts among communities over scarce resources.

2.4) Providing stamping ground to populism to advance its interests.

2.5) Promoting human trafficking by compelling people towards seeking greener-pastures illegally.

2.6) Enhancing child labor to earn livelihood

2.7) Consolidating informal economy owing to less economic opportunities.

2.8) Jeopardising the lives of women by compelling them to bear sexual violence for the sake of earning livelihood.

3.0) Panacea for addressing the challenges emanating from climate-induced migration:-

3.1) Enhancing easy access to Loss and Damage Fund for the countries grappling with consequences of climate change.

3.2) National governments should provide compensation to the victims to reduce climate-induced migration.

3.3) Promotion of adaptation and mitigation measures to ensure community resilience against climate induced threats.

4.0) Conclusion.
