

Recis

litre

Impact of Psychosis and Neurosis On Mental Health

Psychosis and neurosis are psychological disorders, leading to failure to have balanced life, eventually, ego breakdown and polarized by descending into unconsciousness. It occurs when person is unable to attain life goals and descends into behaviors unacceptable to society. Psychosis can either be strong, leading to more wild behavior, or moderate that include domination of one mental process over others. Basically both Psychosis and neurosis drives toward self-alienation and imbalance. Neurosis is interpreted by one's culture than defined as mental illness. one behavior can be neurotic in one culture but consider normal in other culture. According to Jung, the actual abnormality is deviation towards polarity in life than from culture.

Comprehension: 2019

Q: 1-

What lead us to believe that this passage is from Science fiction story?

Ans:

The whole scene is described in story is very unconventional and doesn't look like actual happening. The creature in the story has very unusual characteristics that are unmatched with real organisms - So it's more like a Science fiction story.

Q: 2:

How was crowd behaving?

Ans:

At the fit, there was crowd of hundreds of people, they were causing voices, pushing each other as the strange creature came out all the astonishment and excitement turns into horror. A

was screaming and people moving backward after seeing the creature.

Q:3

Why did the mood of crowd
alter?

Ans:

The crowd gathered around of kind of was highly excited but upon seeing the giant creature their mood altered.
The odd physical characteristics/features of creature having large tentacles and giant size incited fear and disgust.

Q:4

What was the initial reaction of the narrator to "The Thing"?

Ans:

The narrator like other crowd
freeze upon seeing "The Thing".
A shudder chill came over him. His eyes got fixed at point. He was standing alone ~~meat~~ cylinders as all other people were running back. It seems unfathomable terror gripped him.

Q: 5

Why did Wirtes feel disgusted?

Ans:

The huge appearance of the creature with V-shaped mouth, the tumultuous breathing of lungs. It was like monstrous and had oily brown skin with fungoid formation. All of these odd features created feeling of disgust in the writer.