

Judicial Delay^{in Pak} Cause and Remedies.

Outline

i) Introduction

Thesis Statement: There are numerous causes of Judicial delay in Pakistan. Some of the main causes are outdated legal framework, lack of courts and judges, poor trial management, appeal at higher courts and corruption. However, certain solutions are needed for efficient and timely case proceeding in Pakistan.

ii) Pakistan Judicial system is a colonial impressed judicial system.

iii) Causes of Judicial Delay in Pakistan.

- A) Outdated legal framework.
- B) Lack of courts.
- C) Insufficient human resources.
- D) Poor trial management
- E) Poor case management
- F) Restriction on the Order's of lower courts.

G) Corruption

H) Limited access to lower class people in courts

iv) Remedies for the Judicial Delay in Pakistan.

A) Increase the number of courts and human resources.

B) Effective trial management system.

C) Accountability of Judges

D) Independence of Judiciary through new amendment in the Constitution

E) Modern legal framework in place of outdated framework

F) Access to marginalized people to courts.

G) Improve forensic technology for the identification of real offenders.

v) Conclusion.

The ESSAY

"Delay to Justice, is called denied to Justice"

John Becceria

This is the statement of John Becceria, a Pioneer of classical school of thought, in which he says that, if the courts are delaying to provide the Justice of victim. It is clear that courts have denied to provide the Justice. Same is the case in Pakistan. Judicial system of Pakistan is not provide early Justice to victim. Furthermore, there are many cases from the previous decade have been pending for final orders in Pakistan. There are many reason behind the Judicial delay in Pakistan. Some of the major causes of Judicial delay are outdated legal framework, lack of sufficient courts and human resources, poor trial and case management, stay orders, corruption and poor access of children and women to legal system. These causes are not decedent from the heaven that cannot be eliminate. However, more number of courts and Judges, effective trial and case management systems, accountability of Judges, lack of Political interference, modern legal framework, effective forensic technology and access to marginalized communities to legal system are the some way that can eliminate Judicial delay process. In conclusion, it's not doubt, there are numerous causes of Judicial delay. However, it can be eliminated through some reforms in Judiciary.

Pakistan Judicial system is the colonial impressed judicial system. Therefore, the courts and judicial proceeding process are like as British. All the colonial countries which have been taken independence from British. They are implementing the colonial system in their countries, even some countries of colonies are implementing the bail process in judicial system like as British. In the reason, it is clear that Pakistan got independence from British, but British laws and policies have been implementing in Pakistan. Summarizingly, Pakistan judicial system is outdated judicial system. It should be modernized, that, it can ~~take~~ timely proceeding.