

Progressive Alleviation of Poverty in Pakistan - An Overview

Outline

A: Introduction

- a: Introductory statement
- b: Thesis statement:

Pakistan has been suffering from increasing poverty, however, it can be addressed by taking pragmatic measures.

B: Strategies for Progressive Alleviation of Poverty

- a: Reengineering resource distribution mechanism
- b: Boosting-up economic opportunities and job creation
- c: Increasing Vocational trainings and skills
- d: Encouraging entrepreneurs and venture investments
- e: Ensuring gender inclusion equally
- f: Free and open market prone policies
- g: Controlled population growth

C: Challenges Confronting Poverty Reduction

- a: Corruption and lack of accountability
- b: Ineffective and inefficient resource distribution

- c: Lack of government and governance capacity
- d: Spike in extremism and terrorism
- e: Instable governments and polarized politics
- f: Incompetent education system
- g: Lack of Foreign Direct Investment (FDI)

D: Solutions to Address the Challenges

- a: Strengthening transparency and accountability
- b: Ensuring fair distribution of resources
- c: Reforms in educational sectors
- d: Attracting Foreign Direct Investments (FDIs)
- e: Incentivizing entrepreneurship
- f: Encouraging fraction of youth for abroad jobs
- g: Easy and accessible markets

Conclusion