

Real development should transform people's lives, not just economic statistics.

A-Introduction

Thesis Statement: ~~Only increase in economic statistics is not real development. It is visible when it transforms people's living standard by improving their life.~~ economic statistics does not indicate development.

B-Real development ~~should~~ transform people's lives, not just economic statistics

- 1- Ensuring ~~rule~~ of law and transparency to control ~~corruption~~.
- 2- Ensuring ~~political~~ stability in the country to promote development.
- 3- Investing ~~in~~ local ~~industries~~ to increase ~~production~~.
- 4- Investing in ~~energy~~ projects to reduce heavy ~~costs~~ on energy.
- 5- buying ~~new~~ machinery for Agriculture

well organized and quite relevant good

to improve quality and production
of goods crops.

6- Investing on basic human needs-
education, health, skills - to improve human development.

7- Investing on technical and skill development programs to improve employment rate.

8- Initiating youth empowerment
programs to reduce poverty.

9- Providing incentives and stipends
to poor students to improve literacy rate.

10- Investing on research and development to promote innovation.

11- Promoting industry - Academia Partnership to improve human capital.

12- Investing on environmental education to cope with climate change issues.

Q-C- Conclusion