

Women Empowerment - A Panacea to all Problems of Pakistan

Outline

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement: Empowering women is the need of the hour to resolving Pakistan's economic, social, and political problems and achieving sustainable development.

2. How do women empowerment a Panacea to all Problems of Pakistan?

- 2.1 Boost economic growths of the country.
- 2.2 Women empowerment can reduce poverty
- 2.3 Women empowerment can increase entrepreneurship can drive job creation
- 2.4 lead to more inclusive decision-making
- 2.5 Women's representation in legislation can bring women-oriented policies to eliminate domestic and gender based violence
- 2.6 To reduce forced marriages in Pakistan
- 2.7 To reduce rising population
- 2.8 Empowered women can fight against environmental degradation

2.9 Empowered women can make informed decisions about health

2.10 Empowered women can fight gender ceiling

2.11 Empowered women can deal with psychological burdens

3. On what basis do opponents argue that women empowerment have already been achieved through education, job opportunities and political participation?

Counter Rebuttal: The majority of women, especially in rural areas, still face barriers to education, leadership role, and safety.

4. Case Study of Bangladesh's women empowerment

5. Conclusion

Points are okay but no coherence in your point

Try to write points in a systemized manner

Avoid grammatical errors mostly subject verb agreement mistakes