

Essay Pakistan's Foreign Policy

Outline:

1: Introduction

(1.1) Pakistan Foreign policy based on Islamic ideology.

(1.2) ~~Supremacy of national interest, Security, protection of sovereignty, Economic development, Support for self-determination and global as well as regional peace~~ are main objectives of Pakistan Foreign Policy.

(1.3) In historical perspective, Security driven, Alliance-based, Strategic autonomy, geopolitics and geoeconomics were main characteristics of Pakistan foreign policy.

2: Determinants of Pakistan's Foreign policy

well organized and quite relevant

(2.1) Security centric on geostrategic location of country promotes geostrategic foreign policy.

(2.2) According to size of a country, more length compared to width creates strategic depth regard military concerns.

(2.3) Media perception, after 9/11 creates imbalanced foreign policy due to misinterpretation of Muslims.

(2.4) Economic prosperity of state ~~also~~ ~~from~~ ~~base~~ of foreign policy.

(2.5) Political instability ~~creates~~ ~~non-continuation~~ of previous policies.

(2.6) Islamic Ideologic is essence of Pakistan's Foreign policy.

(2.7) Educated, Skilled and Intellectual minds ~~boosts growth of~~ ~~foreign policy~~.

(2.8) National Interests are re-shaping Pakistan's foreign policy with neighbours as well as global powers.

3: Challenges to Pakistan's Foreign Policy.

(3.1) How to balance relationships b/w established world power (US) and emerging (China) power?

(3.2) How to balance relationships ~~b/w~~ ~~an old~~, neighboured and friend country (Iran) and Saudi Arab?

(3.3) ~~If~~ ~~war~~ is not solution and India is not ready for Table talk, ~~then~~ how to solve Kashmir-issue and Indus water conflicts?

3.4) Whether to ~~recognize~~ newly established govt of Taliban or not?

(3.5) If OIC & SAARC are not performing well (Kashmir issue, Palestine and Israel) so what would the future of regional politics in this region.

4. Conclusion

According to National Interest, Security
Concerns and Economic development Pakistan's
Foreign policy is continuously reshaping.