

Essay:- One crowned hour of a glorious life is worth with an age without a name.

well organized and quite relevant good

Thesis Statement:- History shows that courage, justice, and sacrifice make meaningful life while a passive life without purpose remains useless. Every individual should perform his duties very well. Although people face several challenges in achieving goals. Therefore, certain measures are required to address these challenges.

Outline:-

I. Introduction.

II. A short period of glory is far better than an idle and meaningless life.

A. Break free from societal pressure, creating greatness.

B. Stand for truth and justice despite personal cost.

C. Perform duties with honesty and integrity create transformative changes.

D. Exhibit fortitude by sacrificing personal comfort for higher priorities.

E. Courage to act decisively at critical moments shaping history.

F. Focus on strategic implications, not passive routine.

G. Create opportunities for people, benefiting social and economic impact.

3. Some challenges faced by people in achieving goals.

A. Lack of motivation disrupts people from contributions.

B. Limited cooperation with each other.

C. Rise of distraction prevents focus on long-term goals.

D. Fear of failure prevents people from starting a new venture.

4. Some suggested measures to ensure these challenges.

A. Ensure transparency and accountability through effective monitoring and reporting system.

B. Promote unity and cooperation through team building programs.

5. Conclusion.

x ————— x