Topic: Technology Is Threat to Privacy.

Outline

A: ~~Introductory~~

A: Introduction

1. Introductory statement
2. The statement:

   In contemporary era, technology has become a serious threat to privacy. There are multifaceted factors contributing in exposition of users' privacy which have to be timely addressed by taking strong measures.

B: Challenges Posed to Privacy Due to Technology:

1. Increased dependence on technology
2. Complicated cyber attacks
3. Technological tools / platforms are hubs of information

4. Inter-connectedness of platforms
5. Information warfares
6. Users exposing personal and social life
7. Unnecessary sign-ins in invalid platforms

C: Factors Contributing in Increasing Threats to Privacy Due to Technology:

1. Globalization - the world as a global village
2. Users' lack of consciousness
3. Following trends and exposing social and private lives.
4. Prerequisite criteria of technological platform to input private information
5. Vulnerability of technological platforms in preserving privacy
6. Weak rule of law
7. Inefficient watch-dog system for privacy preservation

D: Strategies Strengthening Technological Capacity in Reduction of Threats to Privacy:

1. Stricter monitoring of technology
2. Role of state to ensure users' protection
3. Need for regional coordination to fight
4. Technological tools verification before usage
5. Avoiding unnecessary input of personal information
6. Reengineering of technological protection/privacy rules

E: Conclusion

write in formal expression please