

WOMEN EMPOWERMENT — A MYTH OR REALITY

Outline

I. Introduction

1. Hook
2. Women empowerment has emerged as one of the most debated social, political, and economic issues of modern times
3. Thesis statement

II. Sectors where women empowerment is considered reality (Anti-thesis)

1. Education sector: Learning and Teaching jobs at school, college, universities.
2. Health sector: Medical field and careers, psychologists, social workers
3. Legal sector: Female lawyers and judges (Jesha Malik and... judges in SC)
4. Politics: As voters and election candidates, leaders (Fatima Jinnah, Benazir, Zardari, Maryam Nawaz..)
5. Business sector: Fashion industry dominated by

Date: _____

Day: _____

women, e-commerce

6. Sports: Empowerment in all kinds of sports activities unlike Afghanistan.
7. Media and Literature: Famous anchors, newscasters, singers, writers are women.

III. Rebuttal to the grounds where women Empowerment is considered reality (Thesis)

1. Educational sector: Limited opportunities in Rural area (70% Pakistan) due to patriarchal society, early marriages, poverty, conventional mindset and teaching.
2. Health sector: Limited empowerment in Medical, majority of them leave their professions after marriage. (BBC report 2015 & 2017).
3. Legal sector: Few female lawyers and judges (women lawyers in Pakistan: Navigating in a Male-dominated field by Lund University Publications) inheritance and property rights.
4. Politics: Limited empowerment as voters, Election candidates, leaders.
5. Almost zero empowerment in Business:

Date: _____

Day: _____

Transport, ~~shops~~, cloth shop.

6. Sports: ~~social taboos~~, ~~conventional mindsets~~

7. Media and library world: ~~print media~~, journalists (PM ~~press~~ conference) ✓

IV. Conclusion ★