

International Organizations Have Failed to Protect Humanity

Outline

A. Introduction

- a. Overview of contemporary world
- b. International organizations and their responsibilities
- c. Thesis statement: International Organizations aim at protecting humanity; however, they are failed in their aim because of prevalent political, social, economic, and ideological crises, which are pushing the humanity towards instability.

B. Failures of International Organizations in Protecting Humanity

1. The contemporary wars and UN failure to prevent it;

a) United States' repeated veto on ceasefire resolutions in UNSC

2. Failure of international organization in stopping genocide and ethnic cleansing;

a) UN failure to stop Rwanda Genocide

b) Book analysis: 'Shake Hands with the Devil'

3. The ongoing conflicts between countries;

a) UNSC failure to resolve Kashmir issue between India and Pakistan

4. Failure of international organizations in solving refugees' crisis;

a) Long-awaited issue of Rohingya Muslim Refugees

b) Refugee crisis in Afghanistan

5. Inability to address prevalent humanitarian crisis worldwide;

a) Humanitarian crisis in Gaza, Ukraine, Yemen, Syria, and Afghanistan

b) Prevailing food inflation worldwide

6. Economic exploitation and resources extraction by international creditors;

a) IMF bailout package and Pakistan's economic crisis

b) Economic crisis in Greece

7. Failure of international organizations in stopping cyber warfare;

a) Russia's consistent cyber threats on USA

b) Israel's cyber attack in Lebanon

8. Looming issue of fake news and its threats to humanity;

a) Fake news and religious riots in UK in 2024

9. Weak enforcement of law and order by international institutions;

a) ~~Arrest~~ Arrest warrant of Putin and Netanyahu, and inability of countries to arrest them

10. Corruption and Bureaucratic inefficiencies in international organizations;

a) Corruption scandals of UN members in Oil-for-Food Program in 2004

11. The looming issue of climate change and lacking international cooperation;

a) USA withdrawal from Paris Agreement

C. Policy Measures to Make International Organizations Competent to Protect Humanity

1. Ensuring accountability within organization

2. Bringing countries closer to a uniform platform

3. Building efficient mechanism of law enforcement

D. Conclusion

The contemporary world is characterized by rapidly growing globalization, geopolitical conflicts, economic meltdown, environmental degradation and social discord. Throughout history, human beings have sought to resolve these issues by bringing peace and stability. Nations started establishing multinational organizations to enhance cooperation and counter these prevalent issues.

Many international organizations such as the United Nations, International Monetary Fund, the World Bank, and International Court of Justice were established with the noble aim of resolving political, economic, and social challenges. However, these organizations have failed to uphold their mandates and ultimately failed to protect humanity. The contemporary wars, genocides and ethnic cleansing, and mutual conflicts among countries are significantly depicting the failure of concerned organization to protect humanity.

Moreover, the issue of refugee is a by product of above-mentioned crises, which further complicates the humanitarian situation.

by emanating several other issues such as food inflation, hunger, and global pandemics. Economic exploitation and resources extraction by powerful companies is a illustration of failure of international organizations. In the same line, the today's digital world is at threat of cyber warfare, fake news, and propaganda war, and international organizations are lacking with ability to counter these threats and protect humanity. It is because these organizations have poor and inefficient structure and law enforcement mechanism to cope with the prevailing issue. It is imperative to make these organization capavant and competent to protect humanity by taking pragmatic policy measures such as ensuring accountability with organizations, building efficient mechanism of protect law enforcement, and bringing countries at common platform. In summation, this essay will discuss the inabilities of international organizations to protect humanity owing to present socio social, political, and economic challenges to the globe.