Why I want to be a CSP Officer

I want to be a CSP officer, because it is the best job in Pakistan. Firstly, being a CSP officer, I will have a bright career. As it will provide a very huge amount of salaries, due to which a person can provide a better livelihood to his family, and it will also have many future prospects as it will also provide us study opportunities abroad, which is the foremost opportunity of career growth. It will also provide foreign trips for diplomatic and social welfare seminars, due to which you can represent your country. The CSPs promotion growth ratio is far more efficient and reliable than as compared to any other government sector. The second reason of being a CSP officer is the power to control, protect, serve, influence and improve the lives of others. I want to be a CSP officer, because power, when used wisely can bring safety, justice and protection to the community. And finally, it will give me the opportunity to serve the nation, because it will give me the honour and responsibility to contribute in maintaining peace, enforcing laws and preventing disorders. Therefore, I want to be a CSP officer, because it offers respect, career growth, and power to enforce laws.
