

Dynastic politics is the worst mockery of Democracy.

Introduction

Thesis Statement: Democracy is the process which make people participatory. However, Dynastic politics in today's world has changed the original shape of democracy. It negates meritocracy, inclusiveness, opinion of individual, and among others. However, the politics of nepo-kids has indeed become the worst mockery of democracy.

Dynastic politics is indeed the worst mockery of democracy:

- A. Negates the meritocracy in party politics.
- B. Creates leadership crisis
- C. Increases ineffectiveness of governance
- D. Neglects the principle of inclusiveness
- E. shape the system of autocracy through democratic conduit
- F. Ignores the opinion of individual in decision making
- G. Biases media to align with ^{itself} ~~themselves~~
- H. Creates ~~convetousness~~ ^{convetousness} for power seeking
- I. Ignores the politics of grass roots ~~to~~
- J. Gives a hated perception for politics in masses

K. makes party members focus on seeking pleasure of leader rather than public service

~~to~~ ~~Creates~~ ~~fragility~~ of

L. Compromises the competence in politics

M. Spearheads popular support by conservatism

III. Some suggested measures to keep democracy alive free of mockeries of dynastic politics:

A. Empower each party member to an extent where dynastic politics shouldn't have a vacuum.

B. Strengthen the local bodies ^{to} and make democracy participatory

C. Educate people about the negativities of dynastic politics

IV. Conclusion

Hamas-Israel Conflict: A test for world conscience.

A.

I. Introduction

Thesis statement: There are some established morals in the world where the world has committed to repording collectively. However, Hamas-Israel war has conducted a global test ensuring the distortion of peace, violation of human rights ^{and ignoring} ~~respect~~ for respect for sovereignty, but the world remained silent and the morals has been set aside. Some measures are needed, if the world has to get good marks

II. Some established morals of world, where the world has to repord collectively:

- A. Violation of international peace
- B. Respect for sovereignty of other countries
- C. The cause of climate change

III. Hamas-Israel conflict has tested world conscience by its silence in palestine.

- A. Peace of the whole region has been violeted but the result is the global silence
- B. Disrespect for sovrenignities of countries.
- C. Blockade of human assistance
- D. violation of human rights
- E. Gender Based violence
- F. ~~Dis~~ Targeting the religious places

- G. Mass butchering of innocent people
- H. Increased famine in Congo
- I. Ignoring the climate change consequences by using weapons of mass destruction.

IV. Some suggested measures, if peace must be the result of this test:

- A. Implementing the policies of United Nations Security Council ^{meeting} to hold war criminals responsible
- B. Giving the global powers and institutions the leading role keeping aside individual's interests
- C. Strengthening institutions to fight against violent non-state actors which are weakening the relations between countries

V. Conclusion.