

Title : Honesty of Arab traders.

In ninth century, Arabs traders were sailed down east coast of Africa and ~~reached~~ reached china. Traders yoked together camels and travelled over land to cross the Sahara of west Africa. Arabs trader approved himself, of honest trader to follow the trading of ~~Prophet~~ Prophet Muhammad⁽¹⁰⁾. The busy market of Baghdad was an important meeting place of traders where they brought goods and returned to their lands.

67 = Precise

Total = 125

Title

Title Adventures of Marco Polo.

Marco Polo was one of the most famous travellers who travelled over the high mountains and crossed the Perilous Gobi desert. After three years, he reached the court of Kublai Khan, and ruled an enormous empire. He asked Marco Polo to travel around his empire with canal system. Marco told his adventures to Rustichello, when Polo returned to Venice. Therefore, Rustichello published them in a book, many not believe, but others dreamed to described land.

Page 78

Page 172

Title: Teachers Face Problems due to the Lack of Knowledge.

Teaching Profession is highly Skilled Profession and more even than other Profession. In the modern world, teaching Profession has a honorable and great who all to be inspired by the ideas of his predecessors. Moreover, A good teacher convey his knowledge to other by wisdom. It is true that teachers were not an organized Profession. Therefore, they were often punished afterwards for their subversive doctrines since it is has intellectual independence to install what he convey knowledge. Therefore they face a problems that who to deal with the talented youth.

total 316
pages 90

Title New world discovery of Columbus.
Columbus had no idea about the discovery of Americas but he imagined that the world was covered by piece of land. Columbus persuaded King and Queen of Spain to finance a sea with his ships. He called the Caribbean islands the West India. He found new things and made three more voyages, and explored the Caribbean islands and found new world (Asia)

Precise = 61

total = 167

Paragraph

Democracy is about equality: one vote for one person. Democracy is about empowerment - empowering the masses to choose their own representative. Democracy is about freedoms: freedom of vote, freedom of expression, freedom of decision. All the norms were formulated in the system of democracy. Democracy is in about election and electoral processes and voting procedures. According to Abraham Lincoln, Democracy is the government by the people to the people and for the people. It protects the individual's rights: right of education, health, etc.

COMPREHENSION EXERCISE 3

Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow.

Honesty is the surest way to success. The day at last comes when the dishonest man repents in sorrow and suffering. But no man ever needs to repent of having been honest. Even when the honest man fails through lacking other qualities such as energy, economy, or system, his failure is not the grievous thing it is to the dishonest man. He can always rejoice in the fact that he has never defrauded a fellow being. Even in his darkest hour, he finds repose in a clear conscience. Ignorant men imagine that dishonesty is a short-cut to prosperity. This is why they practice it. The dishonest man is morally short-sighted. He is like the drunkard who sees the immediate pleasure of his habit, but not the ultimate degradation. He sees the immediate effect of a dishonest act – a larger profit – but not its ultimate outcome. He does not see that an accumulated number of such acts must inevitably undermine his character, and ruin his business.

Questions:

1. Why do honest men even fail some times?
2. How does failure affect honest men?
3. Why is the dishonest man morally short sighted?
4. Why do some people practice dishonesty in their dealings?

Composition

1) Why do honest men even fail some times?

Honest men fail through lacking other qualities such as energy, economy, or system, his failure is not the grievous thing.

2) How does Failure affect honest men?

Failure affect honest men. He sees the immediate ~~pleasure~~ effect of a dishonest act a larger profit - but not its ultimate outcome

3) Why is the dishonest man morally short sighted?

The dishonest man is morally short-sighted. He is like the drunkard who sees the immediate pleasure of his habit, but not the ultimate degradation.

4) Why do some people practice dishonesty in their dealings?

Some people practice dishonesty in their dealings because of a larger profit. He does not see that an accumulated number of such acts must inevitably undermine his character, and ruin his business.