The Power of TV and Cinema

Technology has potential to transform society completely, leaving the people in the state of solace. Although it continues unabated in bringing socio-economic and political benefits, it also affects the perception of the people.

For instance, India through the power of TV and Cinema is trying to justify its agenda. In many Indian movies, they ignited hatred speeches by saying "Hum ghar mein ghar le kar maringe" (we will beat them in their homes and defeat them).

By incorporating these dialogue, they inculcated a sense of animosity. Similarly, the USA is also incorporating an element of supremacy through TV shows and Movies. Movies and Shows, for example, American Sniper and struggle of America are making it clear that how the USA is manipulating the mind of ordinary people. However, when the documentary on Palestine was added on Netflix, it was removed because of grim picture of Jewish and Christian while killing innocent Palestinian people.

Therefore, it is clear that the power of TV and Cinema justifies one's agenda by shaping and bending the mind of innocent people like the Indian and the USA are doing.
