

~~Title:~~ The Pakistani Identity

where is the main passage????

Initially, people were very conscious of their ethnicity. They belong<sup>ed</sup> to the same province, but exact location made a difference. As the time passed, people were assimilated together and a new ethnic Pakistani identity began to emerge. Now, their primary identity is Pakistani. Pakistan is a mixture of diverse ethnicities and languages which merge Pakistan into one identity. People show unity at the time of celebration and the time of ~~an~~ anxiety. This shared evolution preserved the cultural values which makes people Pakistani.

about

basic grammar needs attention

sentences are fine need improvement 8/20

Words in passage: 237

Words in Précis: 82