Title here

Human species could be named ^{as} ~~Faber~~ ^{other} than homo sapiens. The very nature of communication made our species ^{as} humans.

Because ~~Just~~ a man is knower and does of something, it is due to the ability to talk. ^{rewrite this sentence} without language, man is like "Yahoo of Gulliver's Travels". ~~Although clever but self-centered, living like animals.~~ It is the language which brought awareness about everything. Man got knowledge about his surrounding. Through language, societies evolved and moved towards civilization.
