

GLOBALIZATION: REDUCING POVERTY OR EXCERBATING IT.

OUTLINE

1: INTRODUCTION:

Thesis statement: Globalization through its facilitation in trade, investment and technology innovation, has the potential to reduce the poverty by creating new economic opportunities, improving good governance and enhancing qualities of basic utilities.

2: Understanding The Term Globalization.

"Globalization is a interchangeable phenomenon, promoting interconnectedness beyond borders".

3: Globalization reducing poverty.

3.1: Globalization creating new job opportunities in the market creating an space for job seekers.

3.2: Extending market bases to allow market access everywhere.

3.3: Globalization creating new economic opportunities for developing world countries

3.4: Globalization promotes technology transfers from developed countries to developing countries.

3.5: Globalization enhances access to quality of education by promoting interconnectedness.

3.6: Improving healthcare services beyond borders through multilateralism.

3.7: Assisting in economic growth of under-developed countries through free trade opportunities.

3.7: Interconnectedness encouraging the foreign direct investment in developing countries.

3.8: Globalization promoting humanitarian aid for vulnerable countries.

3.9: Globalization promoting good governance to ensure transparent and accountable process.

3.10: Globalization enabling competition in market and allowing businesses to compete in free market base.

3.11: Promoting gender equality to overcome the economic disparity.

4: Conclusion: