

Topic: Feminism Has Failed Women

Outline:

1. Introduction

The efforts for protection and promotion of rights have produced mixed results. However, the prevailing trends show that the feminist ~~was~~ movements have not been fully successful.

Despite some positive indicators in this regard, a long arduous journey is waiting to fully empower the women.

2. Demystifying 'Feminism'

3. Feminism has failed women in real sense

a. There is lack of women's political inclusion in many countries

b. At governance position, there is still male dominance

c. The wage-gap places women on the losing side

d. Women are still victim of Gender-based violence

- e. It is women who fall a prey to cybercrime on a large scale
- f. Male literary rate remains higher than female literary rate
- g. Women bear bount of climate change more than men

4. Feminism has encouraged women empowerment rather than failing women

- a. Suffrage right has been granted to women as a result of waves of feminism
- b. The political participation of women has increased in recent times
- c. Women's economic participation at global level has increased
- d. Social awareness about harassment and gender based violence has played effective role in protecting women

: 8.5

e. Digital literacy rate among women has increased

5 Despite piecemeal improvement, feminism has fallen short of its promises

a. Female voter turnout is still low in developing countries despite suffrage right

b. Female political participation is hindered by patriarchal norms

c. Women who manage to contribute to economic growth face harassment at work place

d. Despite awareness about gender based violence, women are deprived of their basic rights especially in third world countries

e. Many women do not have access to internet and smart phone in this digital age

6. Conclusion