

Topic: Female harassment at workplaces exposes deeper social fault-lines

Outline

1. Introduction & ~~Female~~

Thesis statement: Female harassment at workplaces provides an important perspective through which more profound social fault lines can be viewed. Female harassment reveals several social fault lines. However, by taking an effective measures, female harassment at workplaces can be minimized.

2. Female harassment at workplaces as a reflection of deeper societal issues

3. How female harassment at workplaces manifests deeper social fault lines

a) Reveals cultural and traditional norms

b) Manifests patriarchal power structures

c) Shows economic dependence

d) Lack of education perpetuates female harassment

e) Reflects gender inequality

f) Social stigma and victim blaming

g) Weak legal framework

4. Impacts of female harassment at workplaces

a) Increases mental health issues

- b) Reduces workplace participation
- c) Leads to job loss in women
- d) produces economic losses
- e) Erosion of trust between employees and employers
- f) organization risk of facing legal action

5. How female harassment can be minimized:

- a) Strengthening legal framework
- b) Empowering women and gender equality
- c) Raising public awareness campaigns.

6. Conclusion

Topic: Modern era is of skills, not of theoretical education

Outline

1. Introduction

Thesis statement: In today's rapidly evolving world, the emphasis has shifted from traditional theoretical education to the acquisition of practical and skills based knowledge. There are several factors due to which the modern era emphasizes skills than theoretical education. However, by taking effective steps, skills in the modern world can be strengthened.

2. Modern era prioritizes practical skills over theoretical education

3. Why modern era emphasis more on skills over theoretical education

- a) Rapid technological advancements
- b) Changing workforce demands
- c) Rise in globalization and competition
- d) Need for flexibility and adaptability
- e) Rise ⁱⁿ of vocational and online education
- f) Entrepreneurial and freelance opportunities
- g) Faster career progression

4. Impacts of skills over theoretical education in the modern era

- a) Increase job opportunities
- b) produce higher earning potential
- c) Enhance job security
- d) Improve quality of education
- e) Improve productivity and efficiency
- f) Enhance personal empowerment and confidence

5. How to promote skills in the modern era

- a) providing employer-led ~~pro~~ training programs
- b) providing government funding to strengthen skills in the institutions
- c) Integrating skills with traditional education

6. conclusion

Topic: Globalization and climate change

Outline

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement: Globalization and climate change are interrelated to each other. Globalization has affected the climate change and in return climate change has impacted the global activities. However, some precautionary measures can be adopted to mitigate this global climate change.

2. Interrelation between globalization and climate change

3. Effects of globalization on climate change

- a) Massive industrialization
- b) Increase in urbanization
- c) Increases deforestation
- d) Enhancing transportation
- e) Rise in generating power stations
- f) Increases emission from powering buildings

4. Impacts of climate change on globalization

- a) Increases temperature of atmosphere
- b) Increases melting of glaciers

c) Increase in sea level

d) produces threat for health

e) Increase in extreme weather events

f) Rise in hunger and poor nutrition

g) Loss of species

5. How to minimize climate change over globalization

a) Using clean energy resources

b) Limiting carbon emissions

c) Using electric vehicles

d) Focusing on afforestation and reforestation

6. Conclusion