(IV) Conclusion

The word 'Nation' describes the collection or integration of individuals at one platform, such that the platform may be on state-based, tribe-based or religion-based. The question 'Why Nations fails?' constitute a number of factors which become causation of Nation's failure. Holding politics in destabilized manner, bumping with economic crises, un-grasping or un-grasping the social issues, inexperience in developmental strategies, worst measures to environmental protection, all may entangle the Nation in abtruse crossroads, which not only hinder's the Nation's progress, but also avert towards failure. To extract the Nation from the pond of failure and to put into the ocean of success, needs a comprehensive leadership and well-established and disciplined environment. One of the president of USA, Franklin once said that, "failure to preparing, is preparing to failure".
