

Make a précis of the following passage and suggest a suitable heading:
Probably the only --- a functional empathy.

Addition of Social Morality in Intelligence
Humanity's survival requires the use of intelligence that includes love and empathy. Cultivating morally sensitive intelligence is a challenge for the education sector. The failure and abuse of religion to secure social morality has given rise to some religious rhetoric. The realists focus on Machiavellianism: power is morality and vice-versa. Therefore, it is education sector to marably train people in a way which infuses ideals of love, kind and morality in human intelligence.
