

Precise Writing :

Title :

- Media : Contributor of misinformation
- Role of media in spreading misinformation.

Media has a great role in information. However, it also contributes in spreading misinformation and disinformation just on a click through different platforms. Resultantly, a common person is unable to differentiate between true and false information. Media shows the multiplex issues in very simple way. Thus, confusion creates among the public about the ongoing complex issues. Due to continuous bulging of information on social media lead toward critical issues. Enhancing the cultural and societal norms is a perception about media which resulted into conflicts. Sensationalism has become a common phenomenon for increase views on media. This leads towards achieving majority of viewpoints and creating societal restlessness. This occurs due to unmonitored role of media. A chaotic conditions occur due to the preference of self interest over other societal interests.

Comprehension:

(i)

How is sportsmanship conceptualized in the passage and what virtues does it encompass?

In the passage, sportsmanship is described as a behaviour adopted by a person that is expected in sports. The virtues encompassed by the sportsmanship include fairness, self control, courage and persistence. It reflects the way when a person shows its concern to the sports. It includes in the self control and respect for others.

(ii)

What are the four elements of sportsmanship mentioned in the passage and why is it emphasized that a balance must be found among them?

The four elements of sportsmanship mentioned in passage are a good form, The will to win, equity and fairness. A balance must be found among them as the true spirit of true sportsmanship reflected in this. If balance is not present it will result into conflicts in sportsmanship. So, for achieving true sportsmanship balance is necessary.

(iii)

According to the passage, how can the desire to win sometimes conflict with the elements of equity and fairness in sportsmanship.

According to the passage, The person who has desire to win neglects the basic elements of fairness and equity in the sportsmanship. This often occurs due to the win desire resultantly changes into the conflicts in sportsmanship. The desire gives the athlete to become self-centred and neglecting the sports rules. The idea of sportsman became dominated over rules.

(iv)

What are the some behaviours associated with being a "sore loser" and a "bad winner" describe in passage. Impacts on perception of sportsmanship.

The behaviour associated with the sore loser include blaming to others, not blame to himself, make excuses in defeat with many others.

However, the bad winner remains calm on his victory, lowers the self esteem of opponents along with many others. The behaviours impact badly on the sportsmanship as these are against the rules of sportsman.

Translation

Life is like a sea, sometimes it is peaceful and sometime it is stormy.

Yesterday, I was thinking while sitting at beach that our happinesses and sorrows come and go <sup>in</sup> to and fro motion like sea waves. Every wave teaches us a new lesson.

With time, we should understand and learn different colors of life.

:35

The flashbacks of past remind us that what we gain and lost. But, the hopes of future give us strength to move forward. If we benefit from present, our life's every day can fill with happiness. Consider life as a gift, not as burden.

Punctuation:

My quaint ariel said "Prospero to the little spite", When he made him free I shall miss you yet you shall have your freedom. "Thank You! my dear master" said Ariel. "But give me leave to attend your ship with prosperus gods before you bid farewell to the assistance of your faithful spirit."