

Confusing Young Minds as a tool of Cyber warfare

1) Introduction

Cyber warfare has become a widespread tool for confusing young minds. The overwhelming amount of conflicting information, propaganda and weak national integration are strategically used in the cyberwarfare to target young minds. Hence, a multipronged strategy of national unity coupled with media literacy and surveillance is needed.

2) Cyber warfare and confusing young minds: Evolving nature and tactics of warfare

3) How Cyber warfare is a tool for confusing young minds

- a) Propaganda and misinformation
- b) Overwhelming amount of conflicting information
- c) Glorification of violence
- d) Algorithmic Echo Chambers
- e) Building distrust in political institutions
- f) Online radicalization
- g) manipulation of political and religious narratives

4) Impact of Cyber warfare on confusing young minds

- a) Development of extremist tendencies
- b) Increase in terrorist recruitments
- c) Alienation from state and nation
- d) Disintegration of society

- e) Prevalence of Polarization and pessimism
- f) Brain drain and economic stagnation

5) How the effects of Cyber warfare on young minds be minimized

- a) Media literacy and education
- b) Economic and political opportunities
- c) Focus on unity and solidarity
- d) Stringent Cyber security policies

6) Conclusion

DATE: ___/___/20___

Global Warming may unite Humanity

1) Introduction

The debate on global warming on uniting or fragmenting humanity has been the major discussion in twenty first century. Such a global threat calls up for an integrated and united humanity as a counter force. As without a united humanity, there is little chance that there will be any humanity left on the face of earth.

2) Understanding Global warming

3) The threat of Global warming calls for a united humanity

- a) Global warming does not discriminate
- b) Rise of violent non state actors and crime
- c) Resource scarcity and insecurity
- d) Climate refugees and mass displacements
- e) Exacerbation of economic divide
- f) Viruses, pandemics and global health sector
- g) Sanctions and incentives by global arrangements

4) National interests take precedence over global interests and reinforce fragmentation of humanity

- a) National goals and real politics
- b) Climate deniers and skeptics
- c) Political conflicts and hostility

DATE: ___/___/20___

- d) Traditional security paradigm still dominates
- e) Ignorance of the developed North

5) Without united humanity, there will be no humanity

- a) Globalization and interdependence
- b) Wakeup calls from academia and science
- c) Climate diplomacy and lobbying
- d) Shift to renewable energy sources
- e) Global pressures and movements in North

6) Conclusion